

CLASSIC EVENTING TO HOST EQUESTRIAN CLINIC WITH OLYMPIAN BECKY HOLDER

Chesterfield, South Carolina, August 2, 2010 – Olympic equestrian Becky Holder will be teaching a clinic on the long format of 3-Day Eventing on October 8-10 at Southern Eighths Farm in Chesterfield, South Carolina. The clinic will run from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm each day and will be dedicated to the philosophy and theories of long format training and will include speed work on steeplechase as well as how to ride roads and tracks.

“Classic Eventing is excited to be welcoming Becky to a clinic at Southern Eighths Farm. She represented the United States at the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing, finished third at the 2010 Rolex Kentucky CCI*, and is a strong contender for a spot on the US Team for the 2010 World Equestrian Games in September,” says Shelley Spielman, Managing Director with Classic Eventing. “Becky’s classic style of teaching combined with the fantastic steeplechase and roads and tracks courses at Southern Eighths will be a perfect fit. Other educational seminars will coincide with the long format clinic.

The event is sponsored in part by the Area III Adult Riders Program and will cost $425 per participant for the 3 day long clinic. Cost includes stabling.

For more information or to sign up for the clinic visit www.ClassicEventing.com or call (843) 623-5005.

About Classic Eventing

Classic Eventing organizes unique schooling and training opportunities at Southern Eighths Farm. Located in the “Heart of the Carolinas”, the 300-acre state-of-the-art facility has been built to be the ultimate Eventing venue to support all Adult Rider training needs; both long and short format! Whether a seasoned competitor/trainer or first-time rider, all are welcome to participate. For more information visit www.ClassicEventing.com, email Shelley@ClassicEventing.com or call 843-623-5005 (office) or 352-266-3970 (cell).